Cheers to Mom

Sips to celebrate Mother's Day

USA TODAY NETWORK

A fine wine can elevate the occasion and enrich the celebration as mothers are toasted on this special day in May. Here are three bottles worthy of opening for Mom.

Bella
Conchi
Brut Rosé

Spanish Cava is a finely crafted and approachable sparkling wine, and this brut rosé demonstrates all its appeal. An attractive pink coral hue gives way to lively fruit aromas and an engaging, effervescent finish.

Fort Ross 2019
Sea Slopes
Pinot Noir

The cool Sonoma Coast is ideal for fine pinot noir, as it yields wines of purity and elegance. The Sea Slopes Pinot shows bright aromas of raspberry and cranberry and a well-balanced palate that is complex and smooth.

Gary Farrell
2019
Chardonnay

This Olivet Lane vineyard-designated bottling comes from the Russian River Valley, which is renowned for chardonnay. Complex notes of lemon and stone fruit are followed by a succulent, creamy palate that lingers in the mouth.
